DETENTION ORDER PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing was held on February 15, 2007, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. 3142(f). I conclude that the following facts require detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The defendant is a serious danger to the community and a flight risk.

WRITTEN REASONS FOR DETENTION

The defendant is charged with conspiracy to possess with the intent to distribute, cocaine, crack cocaine and marijuana. The defendant is currently being held in federal custody and is serving a term of imprisonment in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons. Since the defendant is in federal custody the defendant waived her right to a detention hearing at this time, and knowingly and intelligently signed a waiver to that effect. If the defendant wishes to have a hearing in the future, she may request one at that time.

DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the correction facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

Lafayette, Louisiana, February 15, 2007.
